1. CALL TO ORDER- DEPUTY MAYOR KRANZ & COUNCIL MEMBER MOSCA

2. CONSIDERATION AND DISCUSSION OF RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE CITY COUNCIL REGARDING THE POSSIBLE PROHIBITION AND/OR REGULATION OF MARIJUANA-RELATED ACTIVITIES AND USES, PURSUANT TO STATE AND LOCAL LAW, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE FOLLOWING:

- Permitting and regulating the cultivation of marijuana (including taxation)
- Prohibiting marijuana-related activities and uses, to the extent authorized by state law, or to a lesser extent
- Delivery of marijuana and marijuana related products—including point to point and the establishment and operation of delivery businesses (including mobile)
- Conducting a survey to assess public opinion
- Response to initiative petition (currently circulating for signatures to qualify for the ballot), if any, which would, among other things, authorize (by conditional use permit) retail sales, cultivation (commercial), manufacturing (of products) and distribution (wholesale) of medical and recreational marijuana
- State law update—Senate Bill 94 and AB 133

Information related to the above-topics will be available on the Subcommittee’s web page.
