Introduction

Under ADA Title II/Section 504, public agencies are prohibited from excluding or denying individuals with disabilities: services, programs, or activities and are asked to look at reasonable accommodations to meet these standards. The City and District do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, ethnic and national origin, sex, religion, age, veteran status or physical or mental disability in employment, its service programs or activities.

The City of Encinitas and San Dieguito Water District conducted a Self-Evaluation of its programs and services, administrative employment policies, and facilities on public property and developed a Self-Evaluation and Transition Plan which was adopted by Resolution 2013-41 in 2013 detailing the methods used to ensure compliance with ADA/Section 504 accessibility requirements.

The City/District recognizes that ADA/Section 504 compliance is an ongoing responsibility and are reviewing and updating the Self-Evaluation and Transition Plans in 2019.

Self-Evaluation

Overview

The intent of the ADA/Section 504 Self-Evaluation is to review the City's/District's public program, including facilities on public property in order to identify any obstacles or barriers to accessibility that need to be addressed. The general categories of items to be evaluated include: City Facilities, Programs, Services, Activities, Employment and identified barriers to accessibility (pedestrian mobility).

Process & Findings

In the progress and monitoring of the Transition Plan, the City/District performed an updated self-evaluation of its services, programs, activities, and facilities on ADA/Section 504 accessibility. Individual departments conducted a review of its programs, policies, and procedures to include a review of facilities for compliance with the current ADA/Section 504 regulations. When new capital improvements are undertaken, compliance with the current regulations are incorporated into the design of the project and modified as project progresses to construction to the most current standard. Contracts include non-discrimination language and mandatory compliance with ADA/Section 504 regulations.

The following charts have summarized the results of the Self-Evaluation: Programs, Services, Activities, Employment, Identified barriers to accessibility, and Facilities.

Summary of Programs/ Services/Activities and Employment programs.

Self-Evaluations were performed for the Programs/ Services, Activities and Employment services were evaluated for ADA/Section 504 accessibility with the following guidelines:

Summary of Identified Barriers to Access

The Self-Evaluation completed in 2018 identified barriers to accessibility in facilities and some programs. A summary of these items and outline of the work to be done are reflected in the chart below.

BARRIERS TO ACCESS IDENTIFIED – FACILITIES SUMMARY:	ADDITIONAL WORK TO BE DONE:
1. Community Center – Disability Parking – ADA path of travel will be updated in 2019, see Item #2 in Transition Plan.	ADA path of travel/new parking stalls under design and contractor providing quote to construct new stalls and path of travel, this is in the Transition Plan. This project is scheduled for Fall 2019.
2. Ensure that all facility construction or alteration after January 26, 1992 and continued updates of the regulations (most recent 2010) conform to the most current ADA/Section 504 designated standards.	Future identified construction or alternation projects are listed on the Transition plan.
3. Glen Park – Disability Parking – slope evaluation	Identified for slope evaluation of disability parking. Will be evaluated for parking and access in 2019.
4. City Website	Under continuous evaluation. Continued review by staff content updaters to ensure accessible content. Global or code-related accessibility issues identified on website will be tasked to web developer consultants as budget allows.

The above identified barriers to accessibility have been added to the Transition Plan.
